Dear Allen:

Joe Barber and I are thoroughly delighted that you will be able to speak at the annual dinner of the representatives of our Committees on Foreign Relations here at the Council on Friday, June 5th, at 7:15 (business dress). Knowing what a load you have at this time, we all appreciate it very much.

As I believe I told you, the topic of the Committee's conference this year will be Psychological Warfare. As soon as the details of the rest of the program are worked out, I will let you know exactly what aspects of the topic we plan to touch on at the morning and afternoon sessions of the conference and who will be the discussion leaders. I hardly need say that we want you to speak on any phases of the topic you choose.

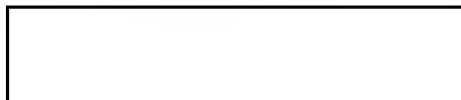

I also appreciate your speaking to your brother about Bob Bowie's participation in the McCloy group on U. S. - Soviet Relations.

I'll look forward to seeing you on the 5th of June and perhaps at the Beard meeting on May 18th. I hope so.

Very sincerely,

George
